UNITED STATES AIR FORCE ROTC DETACHMENT 895, CENTRAL WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, holds its annual spring review between 1100 and 1300 hours today. Shown above is the entire wing as it appeared last Tuesday morning as the cadets added the finishing touches to their pre-review drills. This morning at 11 o'clock a three man inspection team from the midwest will inspect the local detachment. The inspection team includes Col. Lewis Ensign,

Professor of Air Science at Iowa State College; Lt. Col. Leon A. Smith, from Headquarters AFROTC, and Lt. Col. Dale L. Carstensen, University of Nebraska. Cadet Colonel Don Fujimoto is Wing Commander of Detachment 895. Individual awards for outstanding achievement and leadership ability as well as a trophy for the outstanding squadron will be presented at the review.

'The Rainmaker' To Open With Wednesday Showing

"The Rainmaker," Central's all-college play will open Wednesday night at 8:15 p.m. in the College Auditorium. Since the Friday night performance is a special performance in connection with the Mother's Day Weekend on campus, students are encouraged to attend the Wednesday and Thursday night shows. Students will be admitted on SGA cards and on Friday parents will also be admitted on their son's or daughter's card.

The play centers around Lizzie, played by Diane O'Brien, a plain girl who wants to be beautiful and who wants a man. Lizzie is no coquette, and does not know how to flirt with a man.

Her father, H.C., played by John Grove, is a well-meaning, easy-going man who wants to see her happy. He tries to look at her and the problem from the viewpoint of a prospective suitor, but succeeds only in confusing the issue because of his love for her.

Noah, played by Garry Sykes, is her older brother, who because he cares so much for her tries to tell her the truth, no matter how it hurts. Noah runs the ranch which is suffering from a drought. With his sense of responsibility he seems to have tried to take over the family and run it with the same practicality as the ranch, forgetting that people differ from cattle.

Youngest in the family is Jimmy, played by Ken Brown. He is an adolescent who is trying to grow up and be independent. He has a problem with his family.

File played by Bill Johnston, a deputy, is the rather obvious object of the mantraps. He knows it an shys away from the enticements.

The authorities, Sheriff Thomas, played by Don Franklin, and File have been warned that there is a wanted con man in their area and they set out to bring him in. The sheriff is a typical small town sheriff, impressed with his own importance. He has a genuine liking for his young deputy and wishes to help him acquire the happiness he himself has.

Mothers' Day Agenda Set

By Mary Marchese

Mothers and students will be entertained with a coffee hour and a style show between 2-4 p.m. next Saturday as a part of the activities planned for the Mothers' Day Weekend.

The Associated Women Students expect a large crowd for this annual event and have divided the guests into two groups according to alphabetical sequence, it was stated by Jama Goodman, social commissioner.

People whose names begin with N-Z letters will go to the coffee hour between 2-3 p.m.; while guests whose names begin with A-M letters will go to the coffee hour between 3-4 p.m.

A receiving line will form in the CUB lounge and its members will greet the guests.

Pouring for the event will be faculty women, faculty wives and students. The newly inducted Spurs will assist with the serving.

The style show to be held in the auditorium will have viewers whose names begin with letters from A-M at 2 p.m. Guests who have names beginning with letters N-Z will see the style parade at 3 p.m.

Over 100 costumes will be modeled at the style show. Modeling will be done by the girls in the

Bullard To Give English 205 Tests

Any student who wishes to try for exemption from English 205 should appear in A-308 on Tuesday, May 7 promptly at 7 p.m.

Exemption will be granted for superior performance on a test measuring ability to understand and appreciate literary selections.

"A student may try for exemption only once," Dr. Catherine Bullard, chairman of the partment of language, literature and speech, said.

Each person should bring pencils and an eraser. The test will take approximately fifty minutes.

Dean Jacobson Named Commencement Speaker

Dean Paul B. Jacobson, Dean of the School of Education at the University of Oregon, will be the commencement speaker at graduation exercises on June 2.

Jacobson has been a professor at the University of Chicago and Superintendent of Schools at Davenport, Iowa. His topic has not been announced.

Dr. Marshall Mayberry is in charge of commencement exercises.

We're Sorry

The long-awaited SGA elections were held yesterday.

The Campus Crier regrets that it is unable to bring the students full coverage on the elections. But due to a Wednesday noon deadline, the staff was forced to postpone stories on the winners until next Friday's issue.

Former Solist Joins Faculty

Stuart E. Churchill, former choral arranger and tenor soloist with Fred Waring, will join the music department staff at Central at the beginning of fall quarter. Dr. Robert E. McConnell, CWCE president, announced this week.

Churchill will serve as an assistant professor of music and will specialize in voice.

The music department's newest staff member holds a bachelor of science degree from Columbia University's teacher's college and will complete work on his master's degree this summer.

Churchill is married and has one child.

Seven Schools To Compete At Rodeo Field Tomorrow

Rodeo atmosphere will take over at Central Saturday and Sunday when the College Rodeo Competition comes to town.

Seven schools besides Central will vie in the contest. They are WSC, U. of Idaho, Fresno, Cal Poly, Pierce J.C., Oregon Tech Institute and Eastern Oregon College of Education.

The program will enter its first day tomorrow at 1:30 on Rodeo Field with everything from calf roping to bronc busting.

To date 60 individual entries have registered, with more expected.

Two outstanding teams at the meet are Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo and Pierce J.C. from Los Angeles, Calif. In 1954 Cal Poly was the second ranked college team in the nation. Two members of this championship team are still with the group. During the past five years, Cal Poly has been the West Coast champion.

Pierce J.C. flew to Ellensburg yesterday. Its team has been next only to Cal Poly the last five years.

Members of the Central team are:

Jack Wallace of Tyler, Texas, who will ride bareback horses, bulls, calf rope and bulldog. Wallace has competed previously for Fresno State and in the Ellensburg Rodeo.

Annual Military Review Starts At 11 A.M. Today

Central's Air Force ROTC cadets will pass in review this morning. After weeks of preparation the cadets will present their annual spring review before a team of three high-ranking inspecting officers from the East. Making the federal inspection will be Colonel Lewis Ensign, PAS at Iowa State College,

Sandra Snell Named New Kamola Hall President

Sandra Snell, a sophomore from Bremerton, was elected president of Kamola Hall at the recent elections held April 23.

Those composing Kamola's Executive Board for the coming year are Jan Norling, vice president; Mary Luce, secretary; Marilyn Legge, treasurer; Verna Williams, scribe; and Barbara Shinn and Carol Peterson, social commissioners.

A punch and cookie reception, giving all candidates for offices a chance to speak, was held the night before the elections. Of the 186 girls in Kamola Hall, 155 turned out to vote.

AWS Election Names Misses Keesling, Luce

Grace Keesling will head Associated Women Students in their activities next fall, according to Mary Moore, AWS president.

Other officers elected by the women's group on Thursday were Mary Luce, vice-president; Sandra Cox, secretary; Dana Byfield, treasurer; and Huberta Peacock, social commissioner.

Elections were conducted in the women's dormitories and in the CUB for off-campus students.

New officers will be installed on Saturday, May 11, at a program honoring mothers.

Lt. Colonel Leon A. Smith, Headquarters AFROTC, and Lt. Colonel Dale L. Carstensen, University of Nebraska.

Leading the Central detachment through their formal procedure on Tomlinson Field will be the Cadet Wing Commander, Cadet Colonel Donald Fijimoto, and his staff. The wing has been working toward the review with early morning drills throughout the quarter and culminated their work with four early drills this week.

Besides inspecting the cadets during the review, the inspecting team has also made a thorough check of the entire detachment headquarters, including the ROTC building and adjacent property. The team arrived in the mid part of this week and have been studying Central's detachment since their arrival here.

Highlighting today's review will be the presentation of awards to outstanding cadets. Awards will be made on the basis of exceptional leadership ability and high

Tropical Tolo Held Tonight

Tonight at 9 p.m. the sound of tropical music provided by the "Sires Seven" will float out of the gym from Kamola Hall's "Kou Ola Kino" Tolo. "All gals who feel in the native mood may bring their fellas to this semi-formal dance," Carol Ozanich, general chairman, stated.

The special feature of the evening will be orchid leis, flown directly from Hawaii. These leis will be given out at the door instead of the usual programs. At intermission time, hula dancers (also from Hawaii) will perform the traditional dance, and Hawaiian fruit punch will be served.

Tickets, priced at $1.50, must be purchased before the dance. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Chaperons for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Schnebly, Mrs. Annette Hitchcock, Mrs. Janet Thorn, and Mrs. Nora Whitner.

Committees for the "Kou Ola Kino" Tolo under General Chairman, Carol Ozanich, are Carolyn Lisk, Betty Carter and Pat Loydhamer, refreshments; Charlotte Blakely, pictures; Ruth Quinill and Barbara Shinn, publicity; Sharon Hodges and Deanna Winner, tickets; and Bev Loudon, chaperons.

UCCF Car Wash Today

Today is the day for the United Council of Christian Faiths' car wash.

Revised Constitution Ready

There are 11 people on campus who deserve a big vote of thanks for all of the work they have been doing on the revised Student Government Association Constitution. It has been through the efforts of these seven students and four faculty and administration members that our SGA Constitution has been brought up to date.

Wayne Heisserman, SGA social commissioner, did all of the preliminary work on constitution during winter quarter. This work was all voluntary. Heisserman did it in his spare time in addition to the work that the SGA social commissioner usually does.

Heisserman then submitted the revised constitution to a joint meeting of the SGA Council and the Student-Faculty Planning and Coordinating Board to be completed by a Constitution Committee of students and faculty and administration members.

The Constitution Revision Committee selected by Dr. E. E. Samuelson, chairman of the SFPCB, has been going over the proposed constitution for the past week. It should be ready for publishing in the Crier in a week or two.

Each of the 22 articles and 10 by-laws has been gone over with a fine tooth comb by the committee. The nine committee members include Norma Woodard, Marilyn Grove, Mary Moore, Dick Hull, George Worthington and Ken Baldwin. Faculty and administration members include Perry Mitchell, Dr. Elwyn H. Odell, Dr. Floyd H. Rodine and Dr. Samuelson.

Several new items have been incorporated in the revised constitution. The duties and responsibilities of the SGA Executive Board, the SGA Council and the standing SGA Committees have been compiled and listed.

With these duties and responsibilities listed in black and white it will be easier for future student body officers to get their work completed. The election of SGA officers in future years has also been clearly defined which should save future student government organizations the problems that arose this spring.

Another new item in the revised constitution includes a by-law entitled Special Activities. This special by-law sets up specific rules and regulations regarding Homecoming, Sweezy Day, the SGA dime movies, dance subsidization, big name dance subsidization, orientation reception, frosh initiation, Dad's Day, the yell squad, SGA insurance, loans, the Community Concert receptions and the SGA records. Again with these rules and regulations more clearly defined a great number of current problems will disappear.

It is the duty and responsibility of every member of the Student Government Association to read the revised SGA Constitution before he votes on it later this month.

It is with this aim in mind that the present SGA Constitution and the revised SGA Constitution will be printed in the Campus Crier 10 days before you will vote on it. Remember, a Student Government Association is successful only when it is backed by an informed student body.

Annual Turtle Trudge Deadline Scheduled For Friday, May 10

Deadlines for entries in the Turtle Trudge will be May 10. Each entry blank must be accompanied by an entry fee of 10 cents. The official entry blank below and the entry fee are to be mailed to Box 50, CWCE.

Turtles must appear before a group of water color-equipped journalists at 9 a.m. the morning of Sweezy Day to receive their official colors. Requests for color combinations should appear on the entry blank.

Turtle Trudge Title-Taker May Find Tortoises Trying

Turtles are known for their slowness and poor disposition when disturbed. Miss Turtle Trudge II will have no time for slowness on Sweezy Day, May 15, and may have a snappy disposition by the time the day is over.

On the lucky candidate's schedule will be turtle painting during the early hours of the morning, duties as official starter at the Trudge; and the awarding of the trophies to the owners of the first and second place turtles.

Eleven candidates are vying for the honor of being selected Miss Turtle Trudge II. One of these Crier lassies will follow in the footsteps of Carolyn Scott who reigned as Miss Turtle Trudge I in 1953.

Those in the running for the title are Jan Crooks, Dorothy Dedrick, June Hanson, Janice Kotchkoe, Dorothy McPhillips, Mary Marchese, Pat Morris, Sharon Saeger, Barb Smith, Marilyn Trolson and Cherie Willoughby.

Selection of Miss Turtle Trudge will be done by penny vote. Voting will be done at the information desk in the CUB on Monday, May 6. Miss Turtle Trudge will be announced in the May 10 issue of the Crier.

The Trudge is being sponsored by the Crier and will be run, in heats if necessary, on the morning of Sweezy Day. Entry fees and blanks must be turned into the Crier (Box 50) by May 10.

"There is no limit on the size and number of turtles one can enter. If you can't afford to buy a turtle, get a sack and take off on a turtle hunt instead of going home or to Vantage this weekend," urges Bill Leth, Crier Editor.

Sweezy Poll

Central Elite Give Opinions

Question of the week: What did you think of Sweezy Day last year?

Miss Wilma Hotlips, senior. "Ah just had a simply delicate time at last year's Sweezy Day. Everything was so thrillin'. All the men on campus were so friendly. They all wanted to take me to every activity. Simply delicate!!!"

Harriman Slow-Pokey, junior. "Sweezy Day was the most restful day I had last year. I was planning on getting up for the track meet, cause with my ability everyone thought I should enter. After racking up 15 hours of sleep, I ran over to Tomlinson Field and came in 7th—in the women's track meet!! I mean—(puff) it was a great day."

Maud Uppersocial II, sophomore. "Sweezy Day lawst yeah was vedy nice. Nothing like the Azur Club's Annual Charity Carnival, but—quite grawnd. I do want to urge all you underclassmen to attend all the activities. Oh, and by the way, don't bring your Jaguar, darlings, you can walk to all the events. As they say in France—"Tres gai, Sweezy Day!!!"

Virgil O. U. Playboy, junior. "Great day, great day!!—Just can't say enough about it. The carnival, dance, pig chase, track events, talent show, and all the other activities were the greatest. Some of the fellows got lost somewhere after the choosing of King and Queen Sweezy and never did make it back to campus before the dance that night. Wonder where they could have gone??? Great Sweezy Day!!!"

CWC Yell Staff Tryout Date Set

Tryouts for cheerleaders and songleaders for the 1957-58 school year will be held in the Faculty Lounge at 5 p.m. on Thursday, May 16, Nellie Punch announced this week.

The tryouts are for all students, both men and women, who are interested in serving as songleaders or cheerleaders next year.

"Attendance will be compulsory at all tryout meetings if you want to be considered for one of the positions," Miss Punch said. "No excuses will be accepted for absences," she added.

For further information about the tryouts contact either Pat Hosko or Miss Punch.

SGA Council

Council Decides To Hold Campus Problems Meeting

BILL LETH, Crier Editor

An all-college discussion assembly has been tentatively scheduled for next Tuesday or Thursday by the Student Government Association Council. This campus problem discussion assembly will be similar to the assembly held two weeks ago except that all of the questions will be from the floor and directed through the chairman.

Jack Lybyer, Shirley Willoughby, Wayne Heisserman, Bill Leth, Wes Boardman and Jerry Wenger gave the council reports on the Evergreen Conference Student Association convention at Cheney last weekend. The delegates from Central all felt that they and the college had gained very much information from the convention.

Sign Committee Reports

Boardman also gave the council a progress report from the Activities Sign Committee. He reported that the prices of all the materials and labor had been checked into and that they were all reasonable with the exception of the felt boards. The committee is still checking on a less expensive felt board backing for the sign.

The council gave John Strugar, Alden Esping and their Senior Day Committee a vote of thanks for a job well done.

The idea of securing a public address system for the college auditorium was discussed by the council. Wenger, PA System Committee member, reported that the matter had been looked into several years ago and nothing had been done about it then. The matter will be referred to the administration through the proper channels.

Banquet Date Set

Lybyer told the council that the Student-Faculty Constitution Committee is still working on the revised SGA Constitution and that it will be ready to be discussed at a joint SGA Council, Student-Faculty Planning and Coordinating Board in the very near future. As soon as the revised constitution is approved by these two groups it will be printed in the Campus

Crier and 10 days later the student body will vote on it.

The dates have been set for the SGA Council banquet and picnic. The banquet for old and new council members and several members of the faculty and administration who have worked with the council this year will be held on Tuesday, May 29, at 6 p.m. Lybyer is checking on where the banquet will be held.

This year the council is going to have a picnic for all those students who have worked hard on the various SGA committees during the school year. Jerry Yeager is heading a committee which is planning the picnic which will be held on Sunday, May 26. The council is planning to send out invitations for the picnic.

Prom Off Campus

It was decided to send eight delegates to the National Student Association Regional Convention at Marylhurst College this weekend. Those intending on attending the convention include Lybyer, Heisserman, Leth, the four incoming SGA executive board members and a NSA coordinator who will be selected at a joint meeting of the new and old councils at 10:50 this morning. The delegation will leave for Portland this afternoon and will return sometime Sunday evening.

Wenger, off campus president, asked the council members their reactions to the off campus organization sponsoring the May Prom off campus this year. Wenger said that his group felt that if the dance was held in a cooler place than the men's gym, the attendance would be better than it has been in previous years. As individuals, the council members agreed with Wenger, but as a group they did not feel that they could answer one way or another. The dance is scheduled for Friday evening, May 24.

Women Students Elect McPhillips and Smith

Dorothy McPhillips will head Central's Women Students during the coming year. Mrs. McPhillips, a sophomore from Tacoma, was elected president of the group at the Thursday evening meeting in the social rooms at College Elementary School.

Elected to serve with the new president were Barbara Smith, junior from Montesano, vice-president; and Velda Hobbs, freshman from Mabton, secretary-treasurer. May 16 and May 21 were announced as dates for the annual picnic and banquet, respectively.

The women voted to sponsor an entry in the Sweezy Day Turtle Trudge. The newly-elected "veep" was instructed to secure a "speedy specimen" to represent the club.

Joe Wilcoxson of Ellensburg, who is slated to ride bulls and bareback horses and milk wild cows. Wilcoxson is a newcomer to rodeo competition.

Bob Stanaway, another Centralite will ride bulls, bareback horses and saddle broncs. Stanaway has ridden many bucking horses on his father's ranch and in local amateur rodeos.

Several other Centralites will compete. Among these will be four girls who will enter the women's barrel racing and women's wild cow milking. They will receive competition from girls from WSC, Idaho and EWCE.

Student tickets are on sale today in the CUB for $.75.

Eight To Attend Student Meeting

Eight CWCE students will leave this afternoon to represent CWCE at the regional conference of the National Student Association to be held in Portland, Oregon, at Marylhurst College, a Catholic women's school. The conference is scheduled for May 4 and 5.

Attending are Jack Lybyer, SGA president; Wayne Heisserman, social commissioner; Bill Leth, Crier editor; and the incoming SGA president, vice president, secretary, and social commissioner. The eighth representative will be Central's NSA coordinator, who will be chosen this morning at a joint meeting of the retiring and incoming SGA councils.

The National Student Association has over 700,000 members in the US universities and colleges. CWCE and EWCE are the only members from the Evergreen Conference.

Among the objectives of this organization are building closer relations among our institutions of higher learning, exchanging ideas, and discussing the problems of student government.

Music Group To Go On Air

In cooperation with National Music Week, May 5 to 11, the Music Department will present two radio programs over KXLE.

The first, on Sunday May 5, will feature a string quintet, under the direction of Herbert A. Bird, assistant professor of music. The group will play "String Quintet," a piece by George Frederick Peter, an Eighteenth Century composer.

Members of the quintet will be Clydia Barstow, violin; Ted Gumeson, violin; Mrs. Barbara Smith, viola; George Beck, professor of geology, cello; and Mr. Bird, viola.

until two weeks before the fall term opens and then they will be asked to pay a four week advance on their room and board before they can move into a dorm. Students will have their choice of paying either the four week advance or the full amount owed for the quarter.

The $5 room deposit is only to claim a room for fall quarter and either the four week prepayment or the full quarter payment must be paid before the students will be checked into a room in a dorm.

Room rates for the 1957-58 school year will be $5 per week in Munson, Sue, Kamola, Wilson, North Hall and Kennedy and $3.50 per week in Carmody, Alfred, Munro and Montgomery.

Board, or meals in the dining halls on campus, will be $10.50 per week next year. This will be a total of $126 for autumn quarter and $115.50, each, for winter and spring quarters.

Rates at the Campus Courts for next year will remain at $55 per month. The rates for the Vetville units will be announced later after the Vetville Study Committee gives their report.

The ruling of no refund on board unless the student is absent for seven or more consecutive days will also be enforced again next year.

The second program, on Wednesday, May 8, will be produced by Central's music scholarship students.

Ron Frasier, a baritone from Vancouver, will sing a piece from Verdi's La Traviata and "I Will Go With My Father A'Plowing" by Quilter.

Marilyn Olberg, piano student from Enumclaw, will play "Etude" by Chopin and "Peasant Dance"

A woodwind trio will play "Presto" by Haydn and "Aubade" by Paul DeWailly. Members of the trio are June Snodgrass of Ellensburg, oboe; Gary Oules of Chelan, clarinet and Larry Belz of Woodland, flute.

CWC Sends Eight Delegates To Conference At Eastern

By Convention Go-er

"And a good time was had by all!" This was the common reaction of the 70 delegates to the Evergreen Conference Student Association Spring Convention held at Eastern Washington College of Education this past weekend.

The ECSA Spring Convention opened with registration Wednesday night and early Thursday morning and concluded with a post-convention seminar late Saturday afternoon. A majority of the delegates left right after the banquet Saturday noon and did not take part in the post-mortem of the convention.

Central had one of the largest delegations at the conference with eight students attending. Those representing Central included Jack Lybyer, SGA president; Shirley Willoughby, SGA secretary; Wayne Heisserman, SGA social commissioner; Bill Leth, Campus Crier editor; Wes Boardman, Off-Campus representative on the SGA Council; Jerry Wenger, SGA presidential candidate; and Phil Gant and Roger Mikulecky, MIA representatives.

Several of the Central delegates took an active part in the convention by leading discussion groups, by serving on panels or by being members of committees. Sweeeyites and the groups they worked with included Heisserman, Constitution Committee; Boardman, Resolutions Committee; Miss Willoughby, Nominations Committee; Wenger, Debate Tourney Committee; Heisserman, Student Government and Student Press panelist; Miss Willoughby, Student Affairs discussion leader; and Lybyer, Public Relations discussion leader.

Seven ECSA member colleges were in attendance at the convention. Seattle University was at the convention on the observer status and was accepted as a member at the Final Plenary Session Saturday morning. Seattle University's acceptance brought the ECSA membership up to 10 schools. Pacific Lutheran College and the University of British Columbia were the only member colleges not in attendance at the convention.

Gale Benoit of Gonzaga, was elected ECSA president for 1957-58 at the Final Plenary Session on Saturday. Benoit succeeds Lybyer who served as ECSA president during 1956-57. Benoit was an active member of several seminar groups held during the convention and was the discussion leader of the Duties and Responsibilities of the Activity Coordinators meetings.

Thursday night the delegates were guests of Eastern Washington College at a semi-formal dance featuring Les Elgart and "The Band Withe The Dancing Sound." Blind dates were provided for those delegates that wanted to go to the dance and who were without dates.

Two water polo matches between the "Swamp Rats" and the "East-West Water Polo Association" teams were held in the EWCE indoor swimming pool. Thursday afternoon the "Swamp Rats" edged the EWWPA team 8 to 7 in a sloppy match involving about 20 players. Friday afternoon the EWWPA team got their revenge as we easily splashed to an 8 to 3 victory over the "Swamp Rats."

Friday night the delegates enjoyed a Crab Feed with background music provided by a five-piece German band composed of EWCE students.

At the farewell luncheon Saturday noon Lybyer handed out the Evergreen Conference All-Star Athletic Awards to the student government presidents of the various schools. Leo Chandler, host school student government president was toastmaster at the farewell luncheon. In closing the convention he stated that the 70 delegates at the convention represented approximately 21,000 college students in Washington and British Columbia.

Lutherans Offer Movies and Dinner

This Sunday evening at 5:30 the Luther Club will have its weekly supper meeting at the First Lutheran Church. Two movies will be shown, and supper will be cooked by college students.

Band Blare Date Tuesday, May 14

Central Washington College's concert band is beginning preparations this week for their annual Band Blare dance, traditionally held on the night before Sweeey Day and scheduled for May 14 this year.

Playing for the Band Blare will be the college dance band, the Sweeeciens, which is composed of 17 of the concert band. Led by A. Bert Christianson, the Sweeeciens have appeared on radio and television, have played as a feature group for many high schools throughout the state during band tours, and furnish music for various campus and civic organizations and affairs. The college band uses the Band Blare to raise funds for expenses accumulated throughout the year.

Co-chairmen of the dance this year are Kay Cook and Dennis Tsuboi. The pair have not disclosed the theme of the dance yet but claim that the decorations will be "unique."

Two major changes will be in effect over last year's dance, according to the co-chairmen. The dance will be a couples-only affair as in the past, but will not be semi-formal as in previous years. The other major change will be in the admission price, which has been lowered to 75 cents per couple.

Learn To Fly, Earn Credits

Learn to fly and receive college credit while you are learning. Dr. Wesley E. Crum has announced the civilian flight training program that will begin with the fall quarter of 1957.

The program will include three flight training courses plus three courses on theory of flight. It will prepare individuals for the C.A.A. examination and a private pilot's license.

Aviation 371, an elementary flight laboratory course with one credit will be offered the first quarter. The fee will be approximately $144. Aviation 351, Introduction to Aviation, will offer 2 credits the same quarter.

Winter quarter, the intermediate flight laboratory course with one credit will be offered with a fee of approximately $132, and listed as Aviation 372. Air navigation and radio, listed as Aviation 352 will give 3 credits for the winter quarter.

Advanced flight laboratory with one credit will be offered spring quarter and listed as Aviation 373. The fee will be approximately $117. Meteorology with three credits will be listed as Aviation 353 and also offered spring quarter.

Additional information may be obtained from the dean of instruction Dr. Crum, and from Dr. Lind.

If one tells the truth, one is sure, sooner or later, to be found out.

Initiation of the new members and the election of officers for the coming year will take place May 9 in the CES social rooms. The annual banquet will be held in the Commons banquet room May 23, at which time the new officers will be installed.

VANTAGE ISN'T THE ONLY PLACE TO GATHER A SUNTAN in this part of the state. The girls on the Central campus have been saying that the roofs of the women's dormitories are closer to the sun than the beaches at Vantage and sunbathing can be done on campus. Three brave male Campus Crier staff members decided to find out just how warm the sun is on the sun deck at Kamela last Tuesday afternoon. This picture is the result of their escapade. Because of the dangers involved if they were seen snapping pictures on the sun deck of the women's dormitory, the three reporters did not pause to collect names or other information.

McConnell Picks Group To Make Vetville Study

Dr. Robert E. McConnell, Central Washington College President, has named seven faculty and administration members to a special committee to look into the problems at Vetville.

Chairman of the Vetville Study Committee is Dr. T. Dean Stinson, CWCE Dean of Men.

Other members of the committee include Mrs. Annette H. Hitchcock, Dean of Women; Kenneth Courson, Central Business Manager; Don Jongeward, Director of the Physical Plant; Dr. E. E. Samuelson, Dean of Students; Mrs. Marion L. McMahon, home economics instructor; and Dr. Floyd H. Rodine, assistant professor of history.

An official -29 degrees was recorded at Ellensburg airport January 26.

Central Players Now Working On Characterization

Members of the Central Players are working on characterization and stage movements for the three one-act plays to be presented the evenings of May 21 and 22 in the College Auditorium. The three plays are "The Farmer's Daughter" which is directed by Maria Lember and Sam Johnson, "The No 'Count Boy," directed by Dean Tarrach and "The Monkey's Paw," directed by Vera LeVesconte.

Cast members of "The No Count Boy" are Sam Johnson, Ran Frazer, Marie Lember, and Karen Bainton. The play tells of love in the southern part of the United States.

"The Farmer's Daughter" is a typical melodrama. The cast includes Dean Tarrach, Marty Foshacht, Sandy Greenwalt, Dave Brannon, and Ike Frazer. A new member of the cast is Jan Vinson who plays a mother.

"The Monkey's Paw" is the story of an elderly couple and their son and what happened when they received a monkey's paw, allowing them three wishes. The cast includes Pat Short, Jim Clark of the cast is Frank Deering, who plays a bringer of bad news.

The Central Players hope to travel to other areas of Central and Eastern Washington to present their plays after performing in Ellensburg.

Art Students Arrange Trip

Art majors and faculty of Central Washington College will attend the state meet of the Washington Art Association at Richland May 2, 3 and 4. Art faculty members will participate in panel discussions and enter the competitive exhibitions with entries in the sculptor, painting, prints and jewelry divisions.

Reino Randall associate professor of fine art, will give a demonstration on silk screen textile painting. Sarah Spurgeon, associate professor of fine art, will demonstrate painting and Ramona Solberg, art instructor will demonstrate jewelry making. Frank Bach, art instructor, will premier art films of his own composition and also conduct a panel on art education.

The program and activities will include a tour of the Richland public school's art department which includes three elementary schools, two junior high and one high school. Students will give demonstrations, exhibit work and observe class room art situations.

Wildcat Nine Hosts Pirates Today

PERK'S PATTERN

By
Dave Perkins
Sports Editor

Win or lose from here on out, it looks like a record-breaking year for the Wildcats' spring sports squads. Each team has come up with some special event that will probably remain in the record books for some time . . . and we've still got half a season to go.

The biggest event for the baseball team so far, of course, is Stu Hanson's tremendous no-hitter last Saturday. Big Stu really had the Eastern boys fanning the air, and those of you who missed that game really missed a thrilling performance. When Stu apparently realized that he was close to the no-no game, he started to bear down, and it's been a long time since this reporter has seen a ball smoke in like Stu was winging it in.

The pressure in those final innings can be tremendous. All the tension doesn't rest on the pitcher, either, for every fielder realizes that he has to be on the ball, too. I've seen two games that had no-hitters ruined by one of the final batters beating out a bunt.

The track team has put new names on three school records so far this season. Jim Marta tied the high jump record at 6'2" in the first meet of the season, and at the same time Gary Correll was tossing the javelin for a new mark, 202' 4". And, up at Eastern Saturday, young Denny Driskill hurdled his way to a new school record with a time of 24.1 in the lows.

On the tennis side of things, the most outstanding thing is the way that Coach Irish has developed his team. With no lettermen at all to boost his team's strength, Irish has whipped the squad into a pretty fair outfit; they've split in their matches so far.

Even MIA has its heroes, and probably the person making the biggest show on that side so far is softball pitcher Rolland Raab. Raab, a 24-year-old veteran of the Air Force, whips the softball over the plate at near to 100 miles per hour.

Glen Wood grabbed Raab for his Off-Campus team this year, and so far that squad hasn't been defeated yet. Raab has racked up one no-hitter this season now, and from what the opposing batters have to say, he may get a couple more if he tries. His pitches are faster than most baseball players', and he has a fast ball, curves both ways, a change-up, drop, and rise, and he can throw from behind his back if he desires.

In the Air Force, he played service ball for two years and was on the All-Far East team both seasons. In his entire tour he lost only four games, those in the Far East tournament against the service's top competition. If you have a spare minute some evening when Off-Campus IV is playing, you might drop over and take a look.

PITTER PATTERN: Jerry Jones (last year's shortstop) writes from the USAF to give his best wishes to the baseball team . . . Walt Wilson, now in the Army, writes from St. Louis to say he wishes he was back, too . . . Coach Irish has a sign on his door now that says "Honorary Sheriff" . . . A big loss to the faculty will be the loss of Miss Lorraine Flower of the PE department; her personality is unbeatable . . . George Carberry has a neat batting average; been up 19 times and walked 14 . . . You think you got troubles; listen to Monte Reynolds tell about his injured squad, including Marta, Correll, and Driskill . . . POEM: Seniors, here's why the valley breezes blew—'twas Eastern players swingin' at pitches by Stu . . . Talked to one senior last Saturday that pitches at Mabton high school; he's averaging two strikeouts an inning, and coming here next year—enough said?

Pat Lacey Picked As WRA Prexy

Miss Pat Lacey was picked by the members of WRA as their president for next year, in a meeting held Thursday night. Serving along with Lacey next year will be Janet Homer, vice president and treasurer; Sharon Brown, secretary; Carol Garinger, social commissioner; Beverly Farmer and Virginia Rice, fall sports managers; Veda Welsh, winter sports manager; and Marge Sweet, spring sports manager.

Tennis is one of the highlights of the present quarter's activities. On Monday nights, the singles matches are held for the WRA's tennis round robin tournament, and on Thursday nights the doubles matches are held for the tournament.

Softball also holds a spot in the girls' evening activities. Every Monday and Thursday evening from 6:15 to 7:00 the girls play softball for recreation, with no tournament involved in this activity. All girls are invited by WRA to take part in these softball games with the WRA members, according to members of the group.

IN A CLOUD OF DUST an unidentified Central player adds another run in the second game of last Saturday's doubleheader on City Field with Eastern Washington College's Savages. Eastern's catcher, McWhirter, tries for the play while Central's Dean Woerner watches. The Cats swept both ends of the double bill, winning the first behind the no-hit pitching of Stu Hanson, 9-0, and taking the second contest, 12-6, with Gary Driessen going the distance for the Wildcats.

Cats Move Into First Place; Hanson Pitches No-Hitter

Central Washington's baseball squad whacked Eastern twice last Saturday to move into first place with an undisputed claim. The Cats have a 3-1 record and Whitworth, the nearest competitor, holds a 2-1 mark. The Cats easily swept over the visiting Savages, 9-0 and 12-6, as Stu Hanson fired a seven-inning no-hitter in the first contest and Gary Driessen went the route in the second for the win.

Hanson had a big day all the way around Saturday. The fireballing right hander gave the Savage squad little chance to see the ball come in from the mound, much less hit it, and then picked up a bat himself and blasted two home runs to fill out the day's work. He had the Easterners well in control all the way, as he struck out 10 and walked none. Not one ball was hit out of the infield by the opposition.

Gary Driessen was the winning pitcher in the nightcap. The fast-working chucker held the Easterners to seven hits and struck out 11 men in his seven-inning stint.

Central started out in the first inning of the first game with enough runs to win six similar contests; the Cats poured over six counters and then added another in the second inning for good luck. A pair in the bottom of the sixth gave them their final total.

The second game was a bit more wide open, as the Savages piled up four runs in the fifth inning and another pair in the seventh—but it did little good, for the Cats had already piled up their total dozen runs by then. Central got one in the first, six in the second, three in the third, and two more in the fourth before Eastern hit the scoreboard.

The games, originally scheduled for Tomlinson Field, were moved to City Park at the last minute because of wet grounds. Someone had forgotten to turn off the sprinklers on Tomlinson for the night and the infield was a miniature lake by morning.

Track Squad Hosts Glads

This weekend Central's baseball and track teams will be hosting opposition while the tennis team journeys to Eastern Washington to tangle with the Savages today and then moves to Whitworth to meet the Pirates tomorrow.

The Wildcat baseball squad will meet the Whitworth Pirates in a double header today on Tomlinson Field. The Cats now have a 3-win 1-loss record in conference action, that one loss being at the hands of the Pirates earlier this season. After last Saturday's double win over Eastern, Coach Warren Tappin said, "We've started to get our batting eye; our hitting is very much improved. We have a very green team and it just took time to jell. Our fielders are making fewer errors and this is helping our pitching staff."

The Pirates are a very well balanced team with strong pitching and heavy hitting, according to Coach Tappin. Tappin named his starting pitchers as Stu Hanson and either Gary Driessen or Bill Bieloh.

Central's track team will be up against the PLC Gladiators Saturday afternoon on Tomlinson Field. The Lutes have the best javelin thrower in the conference in John Fromm. PLC has also looked good in the mile, 440, high jump and the broad jump.

The Wildcats will still be without the services of javelin thrower Gary Correll, but on the brighter side Denny Driskill and Bud Snaza are off the injury list. Gary Lee has been tossing the discus 134 feet in practice and Frank Hunt hit 173 feet with the javelin. Larry Hinchin, one and two miler, is going to try to run the two mile in less than ten minutes.

Central's tennis team will be on the road against Eastern Washington Friday and Whitworth Saturday.

Miss Flower To Teach In Illinois Next Year

Miss Lorraine Flower is leaving Central at the end of Summer Quarter to join the staff of the University of Illinois in Urbana, Illinois.

Miss Flower will be in the Women's P.E. where she will be instructing sports, both methods and activities, and officiating for P.E. Majors.

Miss Flower said this is a great advancement for her and that she will probably start working on her doctorate degree.

Miss Flower comes from Seattle and has been on campus for two years in the capacity of instructor in the women's P.E. department.

Cat Racketmen Edged By Western; Down PLC Glads To Even Average

Central Washington's racket squad is playing .500 tennis after their first four games, splitting the last two with Western and Pacific Lutheran. They lost to Western 4-3 last Thursday and whopped the Glads of Tacoma 5-2 Saturday.

A breeze which should have favored the Cats proved a handicap in the Western match. Gusts up to 40 miles an hour blew the ball all over the courts as the Vikings took three singles and one doubles match. Wayne Daleski and Bill Daniels took victories in the singles and Daniels teamed with Jim Hanson to take one doubles victory.

In whipping PLC 5-2 the Cat netters took three singles and swept both doubles pairings to win

Off-Campus, Vetville, Hold Lead In MIA

Vetville and Off Campus IV still sit atop the standings in Men's Intramural softball after two weeks of play. The Vets lead the National League; Off Campus is pacing the American. Both teams have won four games.

Off Campus IV looks like the top team in either league. Glenn Wood and cohorts won two shutouts, 13-0, 2-0, over Off Campus II and Wilson II in that order last week. Vetville had a tougher time. They hooked up with Alford in a slug-fest that finally ended 17-16. Tuesday night Montgomery came close to snapping the Vet's winning streak but lost 6-5. Montgomery outfielder Bill Pedersen tripled the fifth run home in the last inning but died on third.

The original title of the "Star Spangled Banner" was "The Defense of Fort McHenry."

Sportrait Marta Goes High For Track Points

This week's Sportrait reveals high-flying Jim Marta. Marta is Central's ace high jumper and has been making the high jump one of the Wildcats' favorite events.

Although he grew up in Ellensburg, twenty-one year old Marta was born in Roslyn, Washington. At Ellensburg High School, Jim lettered one year in football, basketball, and track. In track, he high-jumped but never exceeded 5'4". Since high school, this junior who "likes to jump" has improved almost 10".

Marta came directly to Central upon graduating from high school and lettered in track in his freshman and sophomore years. As a freshman his maximum leap was 5'8"; as a sophomore 5'9"; and this year he jumped 6'2" as he broke the dual meet record against Whitworth and also tied the school record. Marta, who stands 6'2½" himself, stated that he has "been working all this past year trying to improve—I hope to break the school record eventually if I keep working."

About two weeks ago, Marta was accidentally spiked on the foot. The wound required twelve stitches, which have been removed now. Marta said: "It is healing well."

Jim Marta

In another week I should be at my maximum."

About the track squad, Marta stated that "I think we can match Whitworth and Eastern in strength this year and if the injuries are kept to a minimum we will have a good chance for the conference title." He also added that the morale was high and that "the guys all want to win."

easily. Ace Ken Sturm, seeded number one on the Wildcat contingent, took Jim Van Beek in his match. Van Beek, who stars on the Gladiator's basketball team, lost 6-2, 6-1. Daniels and Richard Smith also took triumphs in the singles.

Bill Daniels has been the top winner for the Wildcats so far. The little hustler has not been beaten in four doubles matches and the same number of singles.

Coach Everett Irish's squad is on the road this weekend, playing Eastern today and Whitworth tomorrow.

WWC meet results:

Singles: Daniels (C) defeated Bianchi (W), 6-4, 2-6, 7-5; Munro (W) defeated Cowen (C), 6-3, 6-1; Eaton (W) defeated Hansen (C) 6-4, 1-6, 6-3; Endersbe (W) defeated Sturm (C), 6-2, 6-2; Dalesky (C) defeated Smutz (W), 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles: Endersbe and Eaton (W) defeated Cowen and Sturm (C), 6-2, 6-4; Daniels and Hansen (C) defeated Munro and Bianchi (W), 6-4, 6-4.

Cats Drop Dual Meet To Eastern; Face Pacific Lutheran Tomorrow

Central Washington's Wildcats step out of the fire and into the frying pan in the track wars this week after absorbing a 93-38 whipping from the Eastern Washington Savages in Cheney Saturday. Pacific Lutheran scrambles into town this Saturday and from all indications it looks like one of the best home meets of the season. The Lutes will bring javelin man Jack Fromm with them. Fromm is back from the Drake Relays where he won with a toss of 232 feet.

Saturday, the Cats took the same treatment as all other rivals this year from Eastern's powerhouse squad. Central collected only three firsts, but some of the indications point to better things.

Denny Driskill raced to a new school record in the low hurdles in 24.1 seconds, cutting four-tenths off the old mark. The Spokane flash has been ailing with a bad back for two weeks. If he's back in shape the sun could come up this Saturday.

Another good sign for Central was Mike Higgins' 50.5 in the 440. Higgins cut a half second off the old dual meet record with that clocking. Central's Jim Marta took high jump honors with a 5'9" leap despite his injured foot which is not fully recovered. Coach Monte Reynolds had him stop at that height.

Wildcat distance star Larry Hinchey, whose steady improvement has been encouraging to Cat track fans, lost both the mile and two mile races but only by a total of a few feet.

Eastern set records in the relay, javelin, 220, and the half mile. Ike Cummings ran the 880 in 1:58.8; Lyle Balderson clicked to a 21.6 220; Ron Sperber tossed the javelin 209 feet, 9 inches; and the Savage relay team toured the mile in 3:26.5.

FOCUS ON CENTRAL...

Summer Weather, Seniors Hit Central Simultaneously

SHARON HODGES REGISTERS SENIORS arriving for the annual Senior Day held on the Central Washington College campus April 27. Students from all over the state flocked to Central for a chance to tour the campus and apply for scholarships. Visitors from high schools and junior colleges throughout Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana. Some students arrived on Friday evening and spent the night in the dorms. Campus movies were free entertainment for the early comers. Seniors were entertained with a movie and dance on Saturday. Tennis and baseball provided relaxation for the sports minded during the warm afternoon hours. John Struger and Alden Esping were co-chairmen of the Senior Day weekend.

ART STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE CERAMICS to a crowd of delegates attending the 12th Annual Art Festival. High school exhibitors and art students set up exhibits in A-300 where students attending the Central Senior Day, Art Festival and Science Day roamed viewing the different types of displays. In past years the exhibits had been sent in advance and had been arranged by the college. Luncheon was served the visiting instructors.

EVEN THE BURNING SUN AND THE FACT THAT THERE WAS NO SHADE, didn't keep the fans of the Sweezy baseball team away from the double header at City Field Saturday. College and high school students alike, swarmed around the diamond to see Central whip Eastern College of Education 9-0 and 12-6. Stu Hanson pitched the first game which was a no-hitter and Gary Driesen the second of the double header. Many students returned from the game a few shades redder than before as hot weather and sunshine hit Ellensburg.

PROBABLE SCIENTISTS OF THE FUTURE watch science demonstrations given by students trying for science scholarships to Central. Entries from all over the state participated in the competition. Science Day was held Friday for elementary school and junior high students. They toured the science demonstrations which was part of the open house held in the science building. Saturday was devoted to senior high demonstrations and the open house.

PAT McNEIL, PERCHED ON THE STOOL, was ready to explain the function of the Foucault Pendulum located in the science building. McNeil was one of the college students who acted as hosts or guides at the science open house Friday and Saturday. Here McNeil is shown talking to Janice Fulton as onlookers observe the Foucault Pendulum. The sphere representing the sun is suspended from the top of the science building by a wire.

JEWELRY DEMONSTRATIONS WERE PART OF THE ART demonstrations given Saturday as part of the 12th Annual Art Festival. Here a representative from Selah gives a demonstration of copper jewelry making to students making the rounds of the art booths set up in the Administration building. Art exhibits were located on the second, third and fourth floors of the Administration building. Demonstrations were given in mosaic craft, pottery, and jewelry making. Displays of paintings, chalk work, wood carving, ceramics and mosaic craft were also exhibited by visiting students from high schools all over the state. The annual sketch contest was held again. Student artists wandered all over campus locating subjects for their sketches.
